Section 2. When the meeting is assembled, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House shall preside in conjunction, and the meeting shall be governed by such standing rules as shall have been adopted for that purpose by the concurrence of both houses. They shall have power to punish any person, other than a member, for disorderly or contemptuous behavior in their presence, by fine and imprisonment, in the same manner and to the same extent as either house may do, for like conduct before it, by the Constitution and laws of this state.

No motion to extract a bill or other matter shall be in order prior to the bill or other matter being heard by the committee to which it is assigned or, if not heard by the committee, not before the author of said measure has requested a hearing before said committee. No bill receiving a "Do Not Pass" recommendation from the committee to which referred shall be placed on the calendar of bills to be acted on by the Senate except on approval of sixty percent (60%) of the members elected to the Senate, or upon the approval of at least the number of members necessary to pass the bill, whichever is greater. Once a bill, resolution or other matter has been extracted from a committee by such vote of the Senate, the bill, resolution or other matter shall not thereafter be referred to a committee except by the vote of at least a majority of the members of the Senate, notwithstanding any action taken on the measure by the Senate. - 9.6 If any member in speaking or otherwise transgresses the Rules of the Senate, the Presiding Officer shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case he shall immediately sit down unless permitted on motion of another member to explain, and the Senate shall, if appealed to, decide on the case without debate. If the decision is in favor of the member called to order he shall be at liberty to proceed, but not otherwise, and, if the case requires it, he shall be liable to censure or such punishment as the Senate may deem proper.

Member Called to Order for Words Spoken in Debate

- 9.7 If a member is called to order for words spoken in debate, the member calling him to order shall indicate the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Secretary's desk and read aloud to the Senate; but he shall not be held to answer, or by such other censure of the Senate, therefore, if further debate or other business has intervened.

No Member to Speak More Than Once on Same Question

Those for whom no sufficient excuse is made may, by order of the majority of those present, be sent for by members to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore for that purpose and their attendance secured and retained. The Senate shall determine upon what conditions they may be discharged. Members who voluntarily appear shall, unless the Senate otherwise directs, be immediately admitted to the Senate Chamber, and they shall report the names to the Secretary of the Senate to be entered upon the Journal as present. - 11.4 When a motion has been made, the Presiding Officer shall state it, or (if it be in writing) cause it to be read aloud by the secretary before being debated, and it shall then be in possession of the Senate, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment.

Precedence of Privileged Motions

- 11.5 When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, when the floor can be obtained for that purpose, to lay on the table, for the previous question (which motion shall be decided without debate), to postpone to a day certain, to refer, or to amend or postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order; and no motion to postpone to a day certain, to refer, or to postpone indefinitely being decided shall be again allowed on the same day at the same stage of the question. After the previous question shall have been ordered on the passage of a bill or joint resolution, one motion to recommit shall be in order, and the Presiding Officer shall give preference in recognition for such purpose to a member who is opposed to the bill or joint resolution.

The Motion to Adjourn

- 11.06(a) The Motion to Adjourn shall always be in order and shall have the highest precedence when a question is under debate if the floor can be obtained for that purpose, which shall be decided without debate; provided the previous question has not been ordered. When a vote is being taken, a Motion to Adjourn shall not be in order.
- (b) If no time is set, the Senate adjourns until 1:30 p.m. of the next legislative day.
 - (c) Questions of privilege and reconsideration yield to a Motion to Adjourn, and a conference report may defer it only until the report is before the Senate.
 - (d) A Motion to Adjourn may be made after the yeas and nays are ordered and before the roll call has begun.
 - (e) The Motion to Adjourn may not interrupt a member who has the floor or interrupt the Senate while in the voting process.
 - (f) A Motion to Adjourn is in order in simple form only. After the motion is made, neither another motion nor an appeal may intervene before the taking of the vote.
 - (g) The Presiding Officer, with three (3) members, in the absence of a quorum, shall be a sufficient number to adjourn.
 - (h) Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three (3) days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

- (i) The motion to fix the day to which the Senate shall adjourn shall not give way to a Motion to Adjourn, if a Motion to Adjourn be made first, the motion to fix the day or for a recess is not in order. The motion to fix the day is not debatable.

Motion to Lay on the Table

- 11.7 Eighteen (18) votes shall be sufficient to lay a proposition or measure on the table. Provided, that when an amendment proposed to any pending measure is laid on the table, it shall not carry with it or prejudice such measure, but it shall take twenty-four (24) votes to take any matter from the table, provided that no motion to table shall be entertained by the Presiding Officer until a second reading shall have been had on the bill under introduction, or in the case of a resolution that the same shall have been read in full at least once. If a motion to reconsider has been tabled, no further reconsideration may be obtained.

The Motion to Postpone

- 11.8 On motion to postpone indefinitely, the mover thereof shall speak but once, except by unanimous consent of the Senate, but the mover, introducer, proposer, or sponsor of a bill or resolution so sought to be postponed shall have the right to close the debate on said motion.

The Motion to Refer

- 11.9 The motion to refer may not be used in direct form in the Committee of the Whole. It may be made after the engrossment and third reading of a bill, even though the previous question may not have been ordered. The simple motion to refer is debatable, but the merits of the proposition which it is proposed to refer may not be brought into the debate. The motion to refer with instructions is debatable.

Instructions With the Motion to Refer

- 11.10 The motion to refer may specify that the reference shall be to a Class “A”, Class “B” or Class “C” Committee or Joint Committee, or to the Committee of the Whole, and even that the committee be endowed with power to send for persons and papers. The motion may be amended by adding instructions on any germane subject, but it is not in order to propose as instructions anything that might not be properly directed as an amendment, such as to eliminate an amendment adopted by the Senate, or strike out an amendment that has been adopted, and insert something in its place, or to amend an adopted amendment. An amendment in the nature of a substitute is in order. When a bill is recommitted, it is before the committee as a new subject, but the committee may confine itself to the instructions, if there be any. When the Senate has recommitted a bill to a committee with instruction to report it back forthwith with certain amendments, the amendment must be adopted by the Senate after the report by the committee.

Repetition of Motions

- 11.11 The motions to postpone and refer shall not be repeated on the same day at the same state of the question. A Motion to Adjourn may be repeated only after intervening business such as debate, the ordering of the yeas and nays, decisions of the Chair on a question of order, or reception of a message. The motion to lay on the table may also be repeated after intervening business; but the ordering of the previous question, a call of the Senate, or decision of a question of order shall not be considered as intervening business, it being essential that the pending matter be called to a new stage, in order to permit a repetition of the motion.

Germane Amendment

- 11.12 No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

Pending Motion to Suspend Rules

- 11.13 Pending a motion to suspend the rules, the Presiding Officer may entertain one (1) motion that the Senate adjourn, but after result thereon is announced, he shall not entertain any other motion until the motion is taken on suspension.

Dilatory Motions

- 11.14 No dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Presiding Officer.

Motion to Expunge

- 11.15 The Senate may expunge from its records any action taken on any proceeding by twenty-four (24) votes. When such motion is carried, the Journal clerk shall bracket the matter in his records, but the bracketed matter shall not be taken out of the Journal. Any consideration given a matter which has been expunged stand as if the matter has never been before the Senate.

Yielding Floor for Motion

- 11.16 A member having the floor may not yield it to another for the purpose of making a motion; but if he desires to allow the motion to be made he must yield the floor.

The Motion to Strike Out the Enacting Words of a Bill

- 11.17 A motion to strike out the enacting words of a bill shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection.

RULE 12

PREVIOUS QUESTION

- 12.1 When any debatable question is before the Senate, any member may move the previous question, but it shall be seconded by at least five (5) members, whether the question shall be put. When the previous question has been adopted, the proponents of the main question shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes in which to debate it, and the opponents of the main question shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes, after which time a vote upon the main question shall be taken.

Vote required to Sustain the Previous Question

- 12.2 Twenty-four (24) votes are required to sustain the previous question.

Effect of Previous Question on Debate

- 12.3 The previous question is the only question used for the closing of debate in the Senate, except the motion to immediately consider.
- 12.4 The previous question motion is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

Motion to Refer

- 12.5 The motion to refer under this rule applies to: Senate resolutions, as well as Senate and House bills and amendments to bills. The motion to refer requires eighteen (18) votes for adoption and is a debatable motion.

Relation of the Previous Question to Other Motions

- 12.6 The motion to lay on the table may not be applied to the previous question; nor may it be applied to the main question after the previous question has been ordered or after the yeas and nays have been ordered on the demand for the previous question. The previous question may be applied both to the main question and a pending motion to refer.

Relation of Previous Question to Failure of a Quorum

- 12.7 A quorum call of the Senate shall not be in order after the previous question is ordered, unless it shall appear upon an actual count by the Presiding Officer that a quorum is not present.

Questions of Order Pending the Motion for the Previous Question

- 12.8 All incidental questions of order arising after a motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

Effect of Previous Question

- 12.9 The Senate cannot adjourn before voting on a proposition on which the previous question has been ordered, either directly or by the terms of a special order.

RULE 13

RECONSIDERATION

The Motion to Reconsider

- 13.1 When a motion or proposition has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member of the majority, on the same or succeeding day, to move for reconsideration thereof, or give notice of his intention to do so, and such motion (or notice) shall take precedence over all other questions except the consideration of a conference report or a Motion to Adjourn, and it shall not be withdrawn after said succeeding day without the consent of the Senate. Provided, the notice to reconsider must be disposed of within three (3) business days from the time the vote was taken on the matter sought to be reconsidered. The motion to reconsider shall be made only when the measure or proposition to be reconsidered is in the possession of the Senate. Provided, such notice (or motion) to reconsider, if given (or made) after the fifty-fourth (54th) day of a regular session, must be disposed of immediately.

Immediate Disposition Required

- (a) During a special session, a motion to reconsider must be disposed of immediately.

Who May Make Motion to Reconsider

- (b) The mover of a proposition is entitled to prior recognition to move to reconsider. A member may make the motion at any time without thereby abandoning a prior motion made by himself and pending. The provisions of a rule that the motions may be made "by any member of the majority" is construed, in case of a tie vote, to mean any member of the prevailing side, and the same construction applies in case of a two-thirds (2/3) vote. Where the yeas and nays have not been ordered recorded in the Journal, any member, irrespective of whether he voted with the majority or not, may make the motion to reconsider, but a member who was absent or who was paired in favor of the majority contention and did not vote, may not make a motion.

Precedence of the Motion to Reconsider

- (c) The precedence given the motion by the rule permits it to be made even after the previous question has been demanded or while it is operating. The motion to reconsider the vote on the engrossment of a bill may be admitted after the previous question has been moved on third reading may be made and acted on after a motion for the previous question on the passage has been made. It also takes precedence of the motion to go into Committee of the Whole, or even of a demand that Senate return to committee after the appearance of a quorum. But in case wherein the Senate has passed a bill and disposed of a motion to reconsider the vote on its passage, it was held to be too late to reconsider the vote sustaining the decision of the chair which brought the bill before the Senate. After a conference has been agreed to and the managers for the Senate appointed, Senate acted on the amendments in disagreement. While the motion has high privilege for entry, it may not be considered while another question is before the Senate. When it relates to a bill belonging to a particular class of business, consideration of the motion is in order only when that class of business is in order. It may then be called up at any time; but is not the regular order until called up.

Application of Motion to Reconsider

- (d) A bill in the possession of the Senate is not considered passed or an amendment agreed to if a motion to reconsider is pending; the effect of the motion being to suspend the original proposition. A notice or motion to reconsider shall not be allowed unless the bill is in the Senate. A bill shall not leave the Senate once notice of reconsideration is given. When the motion to reconsider is decided in the affirmative, the question immediately recurs on the motion reconsidered. When the motion to reconsider is defeated, a second motion to reconsider may not be made unless the nature of the proposition has been changed by amendment.
- (e) A notice to reconsider is not debatable. A motion to reconsider is debatable when the item to which it applies is debatable.
- (f) No bill, petition, memorial, or resolution referred to a committee or reported from the committee for recommitment shall be brought back into the Senate on a motion to reconsider.

Effect of the Motion to Reconsider

- (g) A bill is not considered passed or an amendment agreed to if a motion to reconsider is pending, the effect of the motion being to suspend the original proposition.

The Vote on the Motion to Reconsider

- (h) The motion to reconsider is agreed to by a majority vote of those voting, even when the vote reconsidered requires two-thirds (2/3) or three-fourths (3/4) for affirmative motion. But one motion to reconsider the yeas and nays having been acted on, another motion to reconsider is not in order.

Clincher Motion

- 13.2 The “Clincher” motion is two (2) motions in one; it is a motion to reconsider and to lay on the table. Having prevailed, the proposition shall not be again considered except by expunging the record. The clincher motion is adopted by eighteen (18) votes.

RULE 14

BILLS, RESOLUTIONS, MEMORIALS, ENGROSSED COPIES, AND AMENDMENTS

Introduction of Bills

- 14.1 Any Senator may introduce bills, petitions, resolutions, and memorials by filing them with the Secretary of the Senate or his designee.
- (a) Each measure filed must have an original and fourteen (14) copies, and ten (10) captions of the title, either typewritten or photocopies, prepared in the form and method as provided in the Joint Rules.
 - (b) The Secretary of the Senate shall take the original and perforate it as the original in accordance with the procedure set forth in the Joint Rules.
 - (c) No alterations or erasures or otherwise defacement of the bill shall be permitted.

- (d) All bills, resolutions, petitions, and memorials must be signed by the author or co-authors.
- (e) The improper introduction of a bill involves a question of privilege. Such petition, memorial, resolution or private bill which has been improperly introduced shall be returned to the Senator who introduced the measure.

First Reading

- 14.2 The first reading of a bill shall be for information and unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, it shall be placed on the calendar for a Second Reading.

Second Reading

- 14.3
- (a) A bill shall be read a second time and, after receiving a recommendation from the Senate Legal Counsel, the Presiding Officer shall assign the bill to the recommended committee.
 - (b) At the time of commitment, any Senator may offer an amendment to the bill, which shall be referred to the committee with the bill without debate.
 - (c) A bill shall be considered on second reading from the time it is read the second time until the committee files its recommendations with the Senate, or the bill is extracted from the committee by the Senate as provided in these rules.
 - (d) When a bill has a committee recommendation of “do pass” or “do pass as amended” or is extracted from a committee as provided in these rules, it shall be placed on the calendar.

- (e) In order to amend a bill, it shall be necessary to put the bill back on second reading for the purpose of submitting an amendment.

Withdraw Bill from Consideration

- 14.4 Members' own Senate bills may be withdrawn from consideration by the Senate member at a specific time set aside by the Senate. The member requesting withdrawal may recommend the bill to be studied by the same committee to which the bill was assigned at the time of request for withdrawal. This action will be listed on the Own Bill Own Amendment - Withdrawn from Further Consideration Calendar.

Yeas and Nays Vote for Final Passage

- 14.5 No bill shall become a law unless on its final passage the vote be taken by yeas and nays and the names of the persons voting for and against the same shall be entered on the Journal. No less than a majority of the members of the Senate may enact a law.

Printed Copies on Members' Desks Before Vote on Final Passage

- 14.6 A bill shall not be called up for a third reading and final passage until a printed copy or a photocopy of the same, including all engrossments, shall have been placed on every Senator's desk for twenty-four (24) hours.

Effect on Rejected Bill

- 14.7 A bill having been rejected may not be brought up again the same session, unless it be an appropriation bill.

Recall from the House or Governor

- 14.8 (a) No action shall be taken on any resolution or bill which is not physically inside the Senate Chamber.
- (b) The motion to recall a resolution or bill from the House of Representatives or the Governor's office may be made regardless of the location of the bill or resolution.
- (c) When a bill has been passed and transmitted to the House, it may be recalled from the House by the same vote that was necessary to pass the bill.

Bills - How Received

- 14.9 A committee may receive a bill, resolution, memorial, and petition only through the Senate, and the Senate may receive the same only through a member or members of the Senate.

Bills - Not to be Defaced or Interlined

- 14.10 The body of the bill shall not be defaced or interlined, but all amendments, noting the page and line, shall be entered by the Secretary on separate forms and so reported to the Senate.

Engrossed and Enrolled Bills

- 14.11 A bill engrossed, passed or enrolled shall be certified by the Secretary upon its passage.

Resolutions, Memorials, and Petitions

14.12 Before any resolution, memorial or petition may be considered by the Senate, a copy thereof shall have been on the desk of each member of the Senate at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the consideration thereof. All Senate resolutions and memorials and all House resolutions and memorials considered by the Senate, other than procedural resolutions, shall be read at least three (3) times before action may be taken thereon, with each reading to be on a separate day. Provided, that upon suspension of the rules, a resolution or memorial may be read a second time on the same day. After second reading, all resolutions and memorials other than procedural resolutions shall be referred to committee as follows:

- (a) Joint Senate and House resolutions proposing a constitutional amendment or proposing to ratify an amendment to the United States Constitution, shall be referred to the Committee on State Agencies and Governmental Affairs. After the Committee on State Agencies and Governmental Affairs recommends that Senate Joint Resolutions that propose amendments to the Arkansas Constitution be sent to the Senate for consideration, the Chairman of the Committee on State Agencies and Governmental Affairs, the Senate Majority Leader and the Senate Minority Leader shall meet and set a time and the agenda for the Senate to consider the approved proposals. The Senate calendar shall reflect that consideration of such proposals shall be the first item of business after the morning hour. Under the Joint Rules, the Senate may only recommend one (1) proposed constitutional amendment for the House to consider. Therefore, if the Senate approves a proposed constitutional amendment, such proposal shall be submitted to the House. The Senate shall not vote on any other proposed constitutional amendment unless the House rejects the submitted proposal. If the House rejects the submitted proposal, the Chairman of the Committee on State Agencies and Governmental Affairs, the Senate Majority Leader and the Senate Minority Leader shall again meet and set a time and the agenda for the Senate to consider another proposed constitutional amendment to submit to the House.

(b) All proposed amendments to the Senate rules or amendments to the Joint Rules of the House and Senate shall be referred to the Committee on Rules.

(c) All other resolutions and memorials, except procedural resolutions, shall be referred to the appropriate Class "A", Class "B" or Class "C" Committee. Without objection, all non-controversial Resolutions and Memorials may be placed directly onto the Calendar.

Procedural Resolutions

14.13 All procedural resolutions fixing the time for joint session of the House and Senate, time for adjournment, and other matters relating to Senate business and joint House and Senate business of a procedural nature, may be considered and acted upon the same day of introduction without the necessity of being read at length three (3) times as required herein above and, without necessity of being referred to committee, unless otherwise directed by the Senate.

Resolutions of Inquiry

- 14.14 (a) All resolutions of inquiry addressed to the heads of executive departments shall be reported to the Senate within one (1) week after presentation.
- (b) A Senate resolution authorizing a committee to request information is treated as a resolution of inquiry.
- (c) A resolution of inquiry from a committee shall have a privileged status to report.

Forms of Resolutions

- 14.15 Resolutions introduced in the Senate shall be either:
- (a) A simple resolution (or Senate resolution) shall be directed at some matter for the sole action of the Senate, and may be adopted by a majority vote of the membership of the Senate.
- (b) Concurrent resolutions shall be used for the purpose of expressing facts, principles, opinions, and purposes of the two houses, and shall be directed to some matter for the concurrent approval of both houses of the General Assembly, and shall be binding on neither house until agreed to by a majority vote of the membership of both houses.
- (c) A joint resolution shall be used to submit proposed constitutional amendments, and to ratify proposed amendments to the United States Constitution, and shall be adopted only upon receiving a majority vote of the membership of both houses.

Local Bills

- 14.16 The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special act. This amendment shall not prohibit the repeal of local or special acts (Amendment 14, Arkansas Constitution).

Emergency Clause

- 14.17 If it shall be necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health or safety, that a measure shall become effective without delay, such necessity shall be stated in one section, and if upon a yea and nay vote two-thirds (2/3) of all the members elected to each house shall vote upon separate roll call in favor of the measure going into immediate operation, such emergency measure shall become effective without delay. It shall be necessary, however, to state the fact which constitutes such emergency (Amendment 7, Arkansas Constitution).

RULE 15

ORDER OF BUSINESS

- 15.1 The following shall be the daily Order of Business in the Senate:
- (1) roll call;
 - (2) prayer;
 - (3) Pledge of Allegiance;
 - (4) reading of Journal;

- (5) petitions and memorials;
- (6) report of Select Committees;
- (7) report of Class "A", Class "B" or Class "C" Committees;
- (8) motions, resolutions, and notices;
- (9) unfinished business;
- (10) Executive communications;
- (11) House communications and amendments to Senate bills;
- (12) introduction and advancement of bills and joint resolutions;
- (13) bills and resolutions from the House on First Reading;
- (14) bills and resolutions from the House on Second Reading;
- (15) House bills and joint resolutions on Third Reading.

15.2 There shall be maintained within the Senate Chamber a "Business Agenda" by an employee designated by the Rules Committee. Any Senator who is the sponsor of a bill, resolution, memorial, petition or other matter which is properly on the Senate calendar may cause the measure to be placed upon the "Business Agenda." The bill or resolution to be considered in the order of business during any legislative day must be placed on the Agenda Calendar no later than one (1) hour after adjournment of the preceding legislative day. The measures shall be placed in the order they are presented to the employee of the Senate designated to keep the “Business Agenda,” and except upon the suspension of the rules, no bill or resolution, other than appropriation bills sponsored or recommended by the Joint Budget Committee shall be given priority on the “Business Agenda.” Each measure on the “Business Agenda” shall be called in its order. In the event a measure on the “Business Agenda” is called and the sponsor is not present or does not wish for the measure to be considered at that time, then said measure shall be placed at the bottom of said “Business Agenda.”

Morning Hour

- 15.3 The Order of Business described in this rule shall be used each day, beginning with the first item thereof, and going down to and including the eighth item, before completing the catalogue of items begun on the previous day, provided, no more than one (1) hour daily shall be devoted to so much of said Order of Business as is embraced on the fourth to the eighth items inclusive. If the morning hour expires when a member is on the floor, the matter then under consideration goes over as unfinished business to the next morning hour. Morning hours cannot be extended on House days, without suspension of the Joint Rules of the Senate and the House.
- 15.4 There shall be maintained within the Senate a “Morning Hour Business Agenda.” This agenda shall be maintained by the same employee who maintains the “Business Agenda” referred to in 15.02, and any sponsoring member may cause to be placed on the “Morning Hour Business Agenda” any bill, resolution, memorial or petition, to be called in their order.

The Privileged Matters Which May Interrupt the Order of Business

- 15.5 Privileged matters which may interrupt the Order of Business:
- (a) general appropriation and revenue bills;
 - (b) conference reports;
 - (c) special orders reported by the Committee on Rules for consideration by the Senate;
 - (d) consideration of amendments between the House and the Senate after disagreement;
 - (e) questions of privilege;
 - (f) privileged bills reported under the right to report at any time;
 - (g) bills returned with the objection of the Governor.

In addition to the foregoing matters, the Presiding Officer may, at his discretion, interrupt the Order of Business for the reception of messages.

Unfinished Business

- 15.6 The consideration of the unfinished business in which the Senate may be engaged at an adjournment, except business in the morning hour, shall be resumed as soon as the business on the Presiding Officer's table is finished, and at the same time each day thereafter until disposed of, and the consideration of all other unfinished business shall be resumed whenever the class of business to which it belongs shall be in order under the Rules.

Decision of Questions as to Priority of Business

- 15.7 All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided by a majority without debate.

RULE 16

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

- 16.1 In forming a Committee of the Whole the President shall leave his chair after appointing a Senator to preside, who shall have the same power as the President to preserve order.
- (a) When the Senate resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole, persons who are to participate in the matters to be discussed may be invited into the Senate chamber by the proponents or the opponents of the proposal to be discussed, but all such persons shall leave at the time the Committee arises.
 - (b) The rules of proceedings of the Senate shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole, so far as they may be applicable. Decisions may be made by voice and standing votes, but the yeas and nays cannot be ordered in the Committee of the Whole.
 - (c) The presence of a quorum is not necessary for a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise; but when the Committee rises without a quorum, it may not report the bills it has acted on, and such bills as have been laid aside to be reported remain in the Committee until the next occasion when the Committee rises without question as to a quorum.

- (d) A majority of those voting shall prevail in the Committee of the Whole, provided a quorum is present.

Amendments in Committee of the Whole

- 16.2 When general debate is closed by order of the Committee of the Whole, any member shall be allowed five (5) minutes to explain any amendment he may offer, after which the member who shall first have obtained the floor shall be allowed to speak five (5) minutes in opposition to it, and there shall be no further debate thereon, but the same privilege of debate shall be allowed in favor of and against any amendment that may be offered to an amendment; and neither an amendment nor an amendment to an amendment shall be withdrawn by the mover thereof unless by unanimous consent of the Committee.
- 16.3 The Committee of the Whole may, by a vote of a majority of the members present at any time after the five-minute debate has begun on proposed amendments to any section or paragraph of a bill, close all debate upon such section or paragraph, or at least its election upon the pending amendments only (which motion shall be decided without debate) - but this shall not preclude further amendments to be decided without debate.
- 16.4 No motion limiting debate shall be recognized by the Presiding Officer. The motion for the disposition of any matter referred to the Committee shall be, "Mr. President, I move the Committee to now rise and report." If the Committee has no specific report, the motion shall be to rise and report progress.

- 16.5 A motion to resolve the Senate into a Committee of the Whole in order to make a presentation to or to recognize an individual or group which bears no relationship to a bill or resolution under consideration by the Senate, shall not be recognized by the President or presiding officer after 40 session days have expired during a regular session or after 20 session days have expired in an extraordinary session. An affirmative vote of two thirds (2/3) of the membership of the Senate Rules Committee may make an exception to this rule.”

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS

- 17.1 It shall be the duty of the Senate to consider for confirmation appointments made by the Governor, as provided by law.

Referral of Proposed Appointments to Committee

- 17.2 Before the name of any person submitted to the Senate for confirmation shall be considered by the Senate, such appointment shall be first referred to the Rules Committee, which shall hold a public hearing thereon prior to making a recommendation to the Senate with respect to the confirmation of such appointment. Provided that the Committee may waive the holding of a public hearing with respect to any such appointment on motion adopted by two-thirds (2/3) of the full membership of such Committee.

- 17.3 No appointment shall be brought before the Senate for confirmation that has not received a favorable recommendation by a majority vote of the full membership of the Rules Committee, except upon suspension of the rules.

RULE 18

MESSAGES

Messages from the House and the Governor

- 18.1 Messages received from the House and the Governor giving notice of bills passed or approved, or concerning other matters communicated to the Senate, shall be entered in the Journal of that day's proceedings.
- 18.2 The Senate may receive a message from the House when the House is not in session.

RULE 19

AMENDMENTS TO BILLS, RESOLUTIONS AND MOTIONS

Amendments to Text and Title

- 19.1 When a motion or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it shall also be in order to offer a further amendment by way of substitute, to which one amendment may be offered, but which shall not be voted on until the original matter is perfected, but either may be withdrawn before amendment or decision is had thereon.

Amendment to the title of a bill or resolution shall be in order before its passage, and shall be decided without debate.

Engrossed Copies to be on Desks of Members Before Consideration

- 19.2 Any bill, original or as amended, shall be on the desk in engrossed form twenty-four (24) hours before it can be considered. All amendments filed with the Senate numbering clerk are considered to be on the member's desks at such time as scanned in the computer for access. However, any member may require that a printed copy of an amendment be placed on all members' desks before action can be taken on the adoption of the amendment.

Amendments to Strike

- 19.3 Amendments for striking may be made and adopted the same day.

Senate Consent Amendment Calendar

- 19.4 (a) Amendments signed by Senate members to their own bills, signed by the Senate Chairperson of the Joint Budget Committee making the Joint Budget Committee the sponsor of a bill, or signed by the lead Senate sponsor of a House bill changing sponsors of the bill shall be placed on a Consent Amendment Calendar. The Senate Consent Amendment Calendar shall be conducted at a specific time set aside by the Rules Committee Chairperson.

- (b) These amendments must be presented to the Senate Bill Clerk. The Senate Bill Clerk shall present stamped, numbered and signed copies of any proposed amendment to the Bill Custodian who shall have the bill and amendment placed on the Senate Consent Amendment Calendar.
- (c) An objection by any member, written or oral, to the Rules Committee Chairperson or Secretary of the Senate, of an amendment on the Senate Consent Amendment Calendar, shall cause the amendment to be removed from the calendar and automatically placed on the Senate calendar.
- (d) Any amendment on the Senate Consent Amendment Calendar, shall be transmitted directly to Engrossing after having been approved.
- (e) No bills having been amended shall be considered by any committee or the full Senate until such bills have been engrossed, proofed and reported "correctly engrossed".
- (f) These proposed amendments may be placed on the Senate Consent Amendment Calendar by 5:00 p.m. prior to the date on which the calendar is to be considered.
- (g) Members' own Senate bills and House bills on which a Senate member is the lead sponsor may be amended with their own amendments beginning at a specific time set aside by the Senate. House bills may be amended in accordance with the applicable rules provided for amending members' own Senate bills with their own amendments.

Precedence of the Motion to Amend

- 19.5 The motion to refer has precedence over the motion to amend. Amendments reported by a committee are acted on before those offered from the floor. A motion to strike out the Enacting Clause has precedence over a motion to amend and may be offered while an amendment is pending.

Relation of the Motion to Amend to Other Motions

- 19.6 The motions to postpone to a time certain, refer, amend, for a Recess, and to fix the day on which the Senate will adjourn, may be amended. But the motions for the previous question, to lay on the table, to adjourn, and to go into Committee of the Whole to consider a privileged bill may not be amended.

House Amendments
